Attorney's Fees and Costs

Paul R. Brazil, Muller Brazil, LLP, Dresher, PA, for Petitioner.

Rachelle Bishop, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On January 11, 2021, Armandina Guerra filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner received an influenza vaccine on January 6, 2020. Petitioner alleges that she sustained a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration within the time period set forth in the Table, or in the alternative, that her alleged shoulder injury was caused by the vaccine. She further alleges that she experienced the residual effects of this condition for more than six months. Petition at 1. On September 12, 2022 a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. ECF No. 30.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated January 31, 2023 (ECF No. 35), requesting a total award of $12,484.65 (representing $11,555.00 in fees and $929.65 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, counsel for Petitioner represents that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id. at 2. Respondent reacted to the motion on January 31, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. ECF No. 36. Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $12,484.65 (representing $11,555.00 in fees and $929.65 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Paul Brazil. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
